DATES TO OCTOBER 9

Iowa Election—Heavy Union Majority
[illegible] returns from Iowa are meagre but sufficient to show that the State gives a majority of 20,000 for Stone, the Union candidate for Governor.

Swedes in Virginia.
NEW YORK, Oct [illegible] The Herald's Washington special says that the Swedish immigration has given [illegible] satisfaction of all parties. The farmers are much pleased with the Swedes, who [illegible] industrious [illegible] honest and [illegible] They [illegible] the work of the negroes [illegible] looking after.

The Virginia Election.
BALTIMORE, Oct 11. At the City Council [illegible] There was [illegible] votes, all the candidates being Union [illegible] only [illegible] were polled. The Richmond [illegible] says that it will be [illegible] by an official order in another column that [illegible] will be taken to prevent any interference by the military with the elections to morrow. All troops will be removed from the vicinity of polling places. No officer or man will be permitted to approach them except in case of disturbance of the peace when, if absolutely necessary, a military force may be used to quell the same.

Spangler Protests his Innocence.
NEW YORK, Oct [illegible] A letter from Spangler, one of the parties convicted as accessory to the assassination of Lincoln, dated Tortugas Island Sept [illegible] says: "Before God and all that is sacred, I am perfectly innocent of all the charges and specifications brought against me by the prosecution. I had no knowledge or idea of any thing [illegible] the villainous assassin [illegible] of the President either before or after the assassination."

Union Ticket Elected in Pennsylvania—Army Orders
BALTIMORE, Oct 11th.—The Union majority in Pennsylvania is estimated at 18,000, with gains of several members of the Assembly in Philadelphia.
An order of the Secretary of War dated Oct [illegible] says Commanding Generals will hereafter be allowed the following staff officers and no others: Generals commanding Military Departments, one Assistant adjutant, one Assistant Inspector General, one Chief Quartermaster and one Chief Commissary of subsistence, one Medical Director, one Judge Advocate and two Aids de camp to be selected from officers of their commands. Generals without commands will not be allowed aids or other staff officers.
The Department of Mississippi is transferred from the military division of the Gulf to the military division of Tennessee. The Territory of New Mexico is transferred from the department of California to the Department of Missouri. The headquarters of the Department of Missouri will be transferred to St Louis. General Frederick Steele is assigned to the command of the Department of the Columbia.

South Carolina asks for the Pardon of Jeff. Davis.
NEW YORK, Oct 12th.—A special dispatch to the Times says a delegation from South Carolina, appointed by the unanimous vote of the late convention, to present a petition to the President for the pardon of Jeff Davis has arrived and expect to have an audience at the executive mansion today. The delegation consists of Alfred Hagor, Judge Wardlow and Mr. D. Aiken, who was the second postmaster of Charleston and continued in office until the secession of the State. A gentleman who has arrived here direct from that State represents that the canvass for United States senator is exceedingly lively, and that the prospect for Governor Perry is unfavorable.
His unreserved statements that the parish system fostered and encouraged secession, has gained for him the strong opposition of the parishes and their citizens will unitedly oppose him for Senator.

Arms Seized.
The Herald's special dispatch says: Information has been received at Washington that six hundred Spencer rifles in boxes, were seized by the Canadian authorities at Niagara City yesterday. The contents of the boxes were accidentally discovered in overhauling railroad freight. The authorities report it as a case of Fenian smuggling. It is well known that combinations exist in several of the principal cities of the country for the purchase of arms from discharged soldiers, many of whom, on leaving the service avail themselves of the privilege of purchasing their guns at greatly reduced prices.

Officers to be Mustered Out.
NEW YORK, August 12.—A Washington dispatch to the Express says that General Grant has advised the Secretary of War to discharge at least one hundred more general officers, Majors and Brigadier Generals, with [illegible] and has also advised the mustering out of nearly all the negro troops.
Colonel Parker, of Grant's Staff, one of the Commissioners appointed to treat with the Indians, has returned and reports that everything is now satisfactory.

The Tennessee Legislature Refuses to Endorse President Johnson.
The Tribune's special dispatch dated Nashville October 10th says the Tennessee Legislature to day tabled resolutions endorsing the policy of President Johnson as embodied in his reconstruction of the Southern States by a vote of thirty five to twenty nine.

The Ohio Election
NEW YORK, Oct 12. The Tribune's special dispatch dated Columbus, Ohio, October 11th says forty eight counties give a Union majority of 24,000 and there are seventy counties to hear from. These will increase this to 28,000, and with the soldiers' vote to 30,000. The Unionists have at least two-thirds of both Houses of the Legislature, insuring the election of a Union Senator.
The Tribune's special dispatch says it is rumored that the Wirtz trial will cost the Government $100,000. Col Moore, late Surgeon General of the rebel army, has arrived and will appear before the Wirtz Military Commission.
The Herald's Raleigh correspondent says in the North Carolina convention on Tuesday a report which was ordered to lie over was submitted, recommending that no action be taken by the convention in reference to debts contracted by the State in aid of the rebellion. It is thought the debt will be entirely repudiated.
NEW YORK, Oct. 12. The Herald's dispatch from Raleigh, N. C., of the 9th says: The committee of the Convention [illegible] reported an ordinance [illegible] State into Congressional districts [illegible] as under the rules [illegible] the districts [illegible] being Union [illegible] secession counties being lumped together and two [illegible] the sixth and seventh are in [illegible] It is probable that the Convention will elect United States Senators having high [illegible] [illegible] The [illegible] a general amnesty [illegible] resolutions [illegible] the Convention [illegible] kindness [illegible] towards the South [illegible] that he will [illegible] amnesty [illegible] An ordinance [illegible] Judge Daniel authorizes the issue of three and a half millions of State bonds [illegible] The ordinance for the general election [illegible] was amended as to [illegible] the State Legislature to the [illegible] Monday in November. An ordinance was introduced [illegible] the present Judges of the Supreme Court in office.
NEW YORK, Oct 12. The Herald's Raleigh correspondent says: The North Carolina Convention among other labors re-districted the State for Congressional representation. There are seven districts [illegible] as they now stand. The correspondent [illegible] down the first, third, fourth and fifth as sure to elect sound Union Representatives. The sixth and seventh are a little doubtful though the Unionists are confident of being able to carry them. The second district is said to be strongly secession. It is believed that an unusually able Legislature will be elected.
NASHVILLE, Oct. 11. The House of Representatives has adopted the following resolution by a vote of sixty to four:
That we endorse the Administration of His Excellency, Hon. Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, and his declaration that treason shall be made odious and traitors punished.
FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 12. The Virginia election has passed off quietly, and Union candidates are probably elected to Congress in the First and Second districts.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—From the returns received here to night from the Virginia election there is no doubt of the election to Congress of R. Johnson Barbour in the Third district over John S. Pendleton and others. The district in [illegible] Charles Richmond. Robert Ridgeway, Union, is elected in the Fourth district, and Alexander H. Stewart is probably elected in the Sixth district.
NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The Herald's Richmond correspondent says: The Constitutional Amendment is adopted by almost a unanimous vote. It removes the disability from holding office as applicable to those who provisionally participated in the rebellion.
Facts are developing the ability as well as the disposition of the negro to maintain his manhood. I have it from an authoritative source that out of eight millions of seven-thirty Government loans subscribed for in Eastern Virginia, more than three millions have been taken by freedmen and the remainder by Northern men doing business in the State.
NEW YORK, Oct. 14th.—The Herald's special dispatch says, the President is already diligently employing his leisure hours on his coming message.
The Times special says: The President to-day issued four hundred pardons for persons residing in Louisiana, South Carolina and North Carolina.
NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The Times' Washington special dispatch says: The Commissioner of Indian affairs, Mr. Cooley, received to-day a communication from the principal chief of the Choctaw nation, and the Governor of the Chickasaw nation stating that their people, to some extent, are disorganized and chaotic in their social and political condition. They ask the advocation and ratification of the treaties now under consideration and that some means be taken by the U. S. Government to secure to their people domestic tranquility and protection from outside intrusion. They state further, that in concluding an abandonment of their right of property in slaves, they do not wish to be considered as abandoning all interests in their present and future welfare. If their slaves are to be secured their freedom by the U. S. Government, they desire it shall be on such terms as shall make their freedom as valuable to them as shall be consistent with the rights of their late owners, and the peace and well being of the community. To that end they ask that a competent agent of the freedmen's bureau be sent to each nation with instructions to provide for, and exercise proper control over the freedmen.
NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—News from St. Thomas received to-day states that General Santa Anna is enlisting troops, intending to aid Juarez and the National cause in Mexico. At the latest account he had enlisted only twelve men, most of whom were Italians.
BOSTON, Oct. 12th.—Governor Andrew has appointed the 13th of November as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

Great Union Gains in Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, October 14th.—The official returns from thirty-two counties show a Union gain of 20,000. The thirty-two counties to hear from will probably increase the gains so as to make the actual gains about 25,000.

Foreign.
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The Tribune's Paris letter of September 10th says: The most important news of the week is the confirmation by the Moniteur De La Soir of the statement made the day before yesterday by the London Morning Post, that the French troops would probably evacuate Rome by the time fixed in the Convention, September 15th, and that some regiments would be gradually withdrawn to Civita Vecchia some time before hand. I have private information that the conversion of Monaco will soon be effected on terms considered very favorable for the old land holders.
The cholera at Toulouse is reported to be worse.

California News.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Another earthquake was felt in this city at a quarter before 1 o'clock. A telegram from Santa Clara announces that it was also felt there and was as heavy as the one on Monday forenoon.
Collector James has ordered that all masters of vessels arriving at this port shall show to the Custom House boarding officer the original manifest of their cargoes, and deliver to him a copy of the same.
The funeral of Major Eddy, one of the victims of the Brother Jonathan wreck, will take place tomorrow.
Gen. McDowell has issued a general order to the officers commanding the District of Arizona and Southern California to suffer no armed parties or munitions of war to pass over the frontier into Mexico.
Private letters received in San Francisco by the steamer Oregon contain news to the effect that the City of Mexico was inundated about the beginning of September, consequent on the breaking of the canal acqueduct leading into the city by excessive rains. The loss is estimated at $20,000,000, the loss in one street alone reaching six millions.

U. S. Marshal's Notice.
District of Oregon, ss

WHEREAS, an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon on the 23d day of September, A. D. 1865, by J. N. Dolph, Esq., District Attorney, on behalf of the United States against "One Box of Cigars," alleging in substance that the said goods were on or about the 20th day of May, 1865, landed at the port of Portland, in said District, from the ship or vessel George S. Wright, (the same being a ship or vessel then just arrived from the foreign port of Victoria, V. I.,) without a permit from the Collector of Customs for said District, and praying process against said goods, and that the same be declared forfeited to the United States of America.
Now, therefore, in pursuance of the warrant under the seal of said Court, to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming said goods or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court, to be held in the city of Portland on Monday, the 6th day of November, A. D. 1865, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

MONDAY MORNING OCTOBER 16, 1865

The Special Session

The approach of [illegible] are complaining of the Governor for calling an extra session of the Legislature. They see [illegible] will be very [illegible] to their sinking cause. They are in favor of slavery and not [illegible] will deny it. Twenty four States have already adopted the amendment [illegible] the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery. The Legislature of California meets on the first Monday in December and will adopt the Constitutional Amendment. The Legislature of Oregon is called to meet the day following and will adopt the amendment. But one more State will be required and that one will be found among some of the reconstructed States or others whose Legislatures meet during the coming winter. Thus contrary to the hopes and desires of the Democracy slavery will be abolished in all parts of the United States, and we can proudly look up to our national flag and say

> Not a rent in its flaunting folds we see,
> Of the country's hope—trembling slave!
> No more shall float [illegible] trembling
> That [illegible] with [illegible] hill [illegible]

The Democratic party has been striving for years to nationalize slavery and to open the infamous slave trade. Some of its members were not aware of it until the sequel demonstrated the fact. The plan is not given up yet and will not be for years. Why should it be with the views of the members of that party or a great majority of them? They believe slavery a divine institution, and that in some mysterious providential way it will be restored. In some of the seceded States conventions have been lately held, and constitutions have been adopted abolishing slavery, but none of them have placed it beyond their power, next year, to re establish it after they shall have got their State governments under way under the new order of things. With such views it will be hard for them to give up their cherished hopes but they might as well abandon them, as with the adoption of the proposed amendment, no power can reinstate slavery in the United States. Some of the leaders of this modern Democracy have foresight enough to see it, and like Ben Wood, are endeavoring to reconcile the faithful to the fact, and are urging their brethren to allow negroes to vote. Without digressing too much, we may say, that they are deluded with the idea that the negroes will vote with them. They were never more mistaken, not even when they said a Northern man could not and would not fight. The truth is the negroes know on which side to fight, and they know as well on which side to vote.

The Democracy's love of slavery and their attachment to the doctrine of State sovereignty and the right of secession, furnishes a key to their opposition to an extra session of the legislature, but their editors pretend it is based upon something else. The items of expenses of the session are much magnified, for political purposes. And upon the principle that a lie well stuck to is as good as the truth, falsely say that the State administration has been an extravagant one. The actual expense of an extra session of the Legislature, as any one can calculate, will not amount to six thousand dollars. Of course the amount may be increased by a long session and extra printing, neither of which is likely. That expense amounts to six cents apiece, counting the population of Oregon at one hundred thousand. And according to the testimony of the great Nestor of Democracy, Jo Lane Oregon had that number eight years ago. Now, any one who cannot pay a picayune for the sake of ridding the country of its greatest curse—that relic of barbarism, must be very penurious or greatly reduced by "the sickly atmosphere of a printing office," or some other unfortunate circumstance. When you hear a man object to an extra session on the ground of expense, put him down as a deceiver—he has some other reason.

Columbia County.—We have a letter from St. Helens which states that things are prosperous in Columbia county. For the future the affairs of that county are full of promise. Iron ore is abundant near St. Helens, and will no doubt be made available at no distant day. A very large coal bed has lately been discovered in the same locality. If this coal mine proves as extensive as it now appears to be, it will be a source of vast wealth to its proprietors and a great convenience to this part of the State. Politically, Columbia county is said to be quite right. The copperheads there are entirely subjugated. This is a good omen. There have been some very bitter rebels in that quarter for a few years past.

The New Commander.—Our dispatches announce that Gen. Frederick Steele has been appointed to command the military Department of the Columbia. General Steele is a native of New York, and entered West Point, we believe, in 1839. He was appointed Major General of volunteers in the autumn of 1862. Prior to this he held the rank of Major in the regular army. During the rebellion he was employed in Missouri, Arkansas and Texas, and rendered very efficient service to the Government. We think his appointment to the command of this Department is a good one. He will probably come on at once and take the command.

A Good Idea.—An Eastern copperhead paper says that the "Democrats" of Pennsylvania are holding "Democratic" camp meetings and that a bad idea, either." We should say it was a most excellent idea. No other person in all the country need the religious influence of camp meetings so much as the "Democracy." It is a promising sign to see them now on the road to repentance. We earnestly hope the "Democrats" of Oregon will go and do likewise. By all means let the camp meetings be appointed.

Forest Grove.—The winter term of the female department opened in the new seminary building on Monday last very encouragingly. This building is really a very neat structure plain, tasteful and adapted to its use. The new college building is up and ready for the weatherboarding. It stands one hundred and fifty feet north of the old one. Together, they make a fine appearance from the prairie.

Poor Whites.—The Ohio Democrats, at their late State Convention, gravely

8. Resolved, That the experience of four thousand years has demonstrated that the negroes is not equal to white men and all attempts to place them on a footing of equality, politically and socially with the whites, ever have proved and ever will prove failures and all such attempts ever have proved and ever will prove injurious to both races.

10. Resolved. That under the rule of Abolitionism, and especially under the recent military orders in Kentucky, the emigration of negroes into Ohio is a growing evil and in order that the state [illegible] shall be protected against the negro [illegible], and the people against negro pauperism. [illegible] the action of the Legislature to discourage negro emigration into our State.

We propose to exhibit these humane and ingenious resolves in a little brighter light, as follows:

8. Resolved. That sheep are not equal in strength and ferocity to wolves.

10. Resolved. That it is the duty of our Legislature to pass an act for the protection of our wolves for, if they don't, those ferocious blood thirsty sheep will hunt them all down and eat them up.

Such resolves as the Ohio would be laughable if they were not so base and cruel.—Tribune.

In his Lancaster speech General Sherman said that a man who did not support the war [illegible] man. The copperhead papers ain't quoting this much. It's personal.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 13.

Distribution of Troops

New York, Oct 13.—A general order dated Oct [illegible] issued by Lieut Gen Grant, announces important distribution of troops [illegible] regular and volunteer. All the volunteer cavalry east of the Mississippi [illegible] will be at once mustered out [illegible] All [illegible] forts south [illegible] Taylor and Jefferson will [illegible] The [illegible] colored troops will be mustered out of service. The Third Regular Artillery will garrison the forts in Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts. The First Regular Artillery will garrison New York harbor [illegible] Regiment of Artillery [illegible] Washington and Forts [illegible] Fifth Regular Artillery at Fortress Monroe [illegible] the Second Regular Artillery [illegible] Pacific Coast, the Second and Sixth Cavalry [illegible] the Fourth Regiment of Regular Infantry is assigned to duty on the Canadian frontier.

Pennsylvania Election.

Pittsburgh, Oct 11.—The Pittsburgh (Pa.) [illegible] House of Representatives will [illegible] 60 Republicans and 41 Democrats. It may possibly vary one or two. In this Intu [illegible] Of the eleven senators elected, eight are Republicans and three Democrats. The Legislature will stand, Senate 21 Republicans, 12 Democrats. House 60 Republicans, 40 Democrats. Joint ballot 86 Republicans, 47 Democrats.

The Post Office Department.

New York, Oct 11.—The Tribune's Washington special says the Postoffice Department is making up its accounts for the next Congress. It appears that while the mail service has been sustained by receipts for postage during the rebellion the deficit when the mail service was discontinued in the Southern States in 1861 will be $8,000,000.

General News.

New York, Oct 11.—Marshall Goodloe, just from North Carolina, says that two-thirds of the reports of cruelty to the colored people in that State are false.

Advices from Richmond say that it is feared that two of the Congressmen elected will not take the oath.

Belfast, Me, Oct 11.—A fire occurred last night which nearly consumed twenty buildings in that portion of the city lying below Washington and Crow streets many buildings were destroyed. The loss is about $30,000. The fire was caused by an incendiary.

Providence, R. I., Oct 13.—The Randall Mill in Johnston, for manufacturing shoes was burned yesterday.

Boston, Oct 13.—Walter Aiken's Machine Shop, Franklin, N. H. was burned last night. Loss, $30,000.

The Black Troops.

Washington, Oct 11.—Major General Thomas, of the military Division of Tennessee arrived to day. He says no black troops there are being disbanded, except when their term is nearly out and that all will be retained on the same terms and conditions as white troops.

Clay and Mitchell.

Fortress Monroe, Oct 11.—Quarters are being prepared for Messrs. Clay and Mitchell preparatory to removal from casemate prisons.

Important Commercial Arrangement.

New York, Oct 13.—The Times' special says the Secretary of the Treasury has under consideration a plan to amend the bonded warehouse system so as to permit goods to be transferred from the Atlantic cities to the Pacific coast.

New York, Oct 13.—The Herald says that a number of detectives from England arrived on the last steamer to this city with special instructions. It is understood that they are to keep an eye on the Fenians and inform the English Government from time to time of whatever facts may come to their knowledge in regard to them. One or more of those detectives, it is said, left for Chicago where it is believed, the Fenians are organized in greater strength than anywhere else in America, excepting New York and vicinity. It is understood that the Fenians have lately adopted stricter secrecy in their communications than formerly.

California News—Further About the Explosion of the Yosemite.

San Francisco, Oct 14.—The wreck of the Yosemite has been towed down to this city and is now lying at the Potrero. The cause of the explosion is a mystery. The evidence before the Coroner at Rio Vista yesterday, was abundant and positive to the effect that there was no lack of water in the boiler. The gauge cocks had been tried less than two minutes before the explosion, and showed four full cocks of water in the boiler, which would leave from 2½ to 30 inches above the flue. The safety valve was blowing off steam under a pressure of 25 pounds. The Yosemite register allowed 35 pounds. The steamer had been detained from five to seven minutes at the landing. The only reason for the explosion, that the engineer is able to give, is that there was some concealed defect in the iron which could not be discovered by an examination of the boiler. Of one thing both the engineer and other officers of the boat are satisfied, and that is the unsoundness of the the theory that boiler explosions are always owing to a lack of water, for there can be no doubt that there was an abundance of water in the boiler of the Yosemite at the time of the explosion. The theory advanced in the report sent from Sacramento yesterday, that the explosion was caused by listing of the boat which threw the water too much on one side of the boiler, is scouted as absurd by the officers, who, like the engineer can only account for the catastrophe on the supposition that there was some hidden imperfection in the iron.

The following is a list of killed and missing: William Stephenson, J. M. Fallon, John E. Myers, T. Major, W. S. Sutherland, Louis Tillie, H. Rounberger, David Barratt, Marcus Champion, of Rio Vista; Henry Bethel, of Fort Churchill; C. C. Jacks, of San Francisco; Charles Lewis Smith, Henry M. Dakin, Isaac Harris, Minor Moore, Patrick Crowell, J. H. Barnes, M. M. McGreevy, of Sacramento; J. C. Butler, cook; G. W. Seaton, Senator elect of Amador county; George L. Smith, of Boston; Wm Rodgers, Ar Ole, a Chinaman employed on the boat. Twenty nine other Chinamen and one China woman were taken from the wreck yesterday morning. A Landauer of Virginia City, two Chinamen. These are the only passengers known to be missing, but it is thought that others may have been blown into the water and drowned. Mr. Seaton made his will on board the Yosemite. Wm Wilkinson deck boy, badly scalded and injured; S. S. Craigh, Clerk of the steamer slightly scalded; Captain E. A. Poole of the steamer was thrown from the boiler deck forward to the end of the main deck and received no injury; S. Hasse of Sacramento City, was cut in the face; A. Linkhausen, of San Francisco, badly scalded and wrist broken; J. W. Haskin, blown into the river and swam to the opposite shore slight contusion; G. W. Barnum, of Sacramento, badly scalded; [illegible] Hastings, slightly scalded; H. Christy, leg broken and badly scalded; John Ranker of Sacramento scalded on the back of head; Jimmy Griffiths slightly cut on the head and a scald in the leg; C. Wilkins, of Sacramento, scalded; Wm Rogers, killed; three white men killed, names unknown; H. Waskawisky, of Virginia, scalded; E. Jacobs, Sacramento, foot broken; C. [illegible], messenger of Wells Fargo & Co., was blown to the opposite shore and returned uninjured; Michael Chancey, was very badly scalded; Capt. W. Campbell badly bruised; Wm Sharon, President Branch Bank of California, Virginia City, slightly injured; Capt. Ager, San Francisco badly bruised; J. J. Chase, leg broken and scalded; Peter Burke, cook, badly injured; Geo. Bowers [illegible] Gatrost; [illegible] Kelly scalded; Jansen of Jansen, Bond & Co., scalded and ankle slightly injured; Robert Barlstipe, engineer of the Yosemite, badly scalded.

It will probably take a month to repair the Yosemite so that she can resume her trips on the river. The expense of her repairing will doubtless amount to $20,000.

The funeral of Major Tillie who was lost on the steamship Brother Jonathan took place to day from Trinity Church. Companies C, D, J and K under command of Major Morton, acted as military escort.

The Trades Union last evening adopted an address with regard to [illegible] the rights of the [illegible] almost unanimous vote—being [illegible] in the negative.

Wm. Mutton, who died [illegible] will [illegible] has been partially [illegible] which produced an inert neutralizing combination.

San Francisco, Oct 15.—Our city is again in mourning. Flags are at half mast all over the town. To day will be given up to the steps loosely to paying the last sad honors to the departed. The bodies of Stevenson, Jacks, Justin Dakin, Sutherland, Bauer, Champion, Regensberger, Mayer and others, are at Gray's. Those of Senator Seat and the body of Henry Reyensberger, have been taken to their late residences and the bodies of Fallon and Major are at Massey's. The bodies of J. H. Barnes and Mr Kelly were brought down by the Antelope last evening.

Since the above was written we learn that the body marked C. C. Jacks is that of Henry Bethel. The mistake arose from the fact that Mr. Jacks had just handed his drinking flask marked with [illegible] he [illegible] Mr Bethel [illegible] his [illegible] funeral [illegible] to day. The remains of Mr. [illegible] will [illegible] by the morning train.

[illegible] ARTIST.—Let a practical miner, who has visited all the regions of the Pacific slope, from Mexico to Fraser River, from Nevada to the British Possessions, calmly [illegible] and he will tell you that he never found in all his travels and among all locations of mines, a region so [illegible] supplied, so happily favored by nature with all the elements of wealth as are those to be seen [illegible]. [illegible] which timber, water and many [illegible]. In every other part of the country [illegible] from the base of supplies [illegible] trouble [illegible] necessary [illegible] the lodges [illegible] the Cascade range [illegible] are just as necessary [illegible] after lodges are found [illegible] ... [illegible]

[illegible] Quartzville, farmers [illegible] for their products [illegible] in wagons thirty miles to [illegible] bacon and beans [illegible] mountains where he is at work opening [illegible] poor, even though his ledge [illegible] this is the very time he should resolve [illegible] he make something for himself [illegible] and perseverance, and [illegible] matter of utter impossibility [illegible] property in the entire communal [illegible] We are glad to know that [illegible] found in the State willing to assist [illegible] desire to see the matter more general.

[illegible]—We extract the following from [illegible] of Mayor Failing, accompanying the [illegible] the Street Commissioner to con[illegible] extension of the sewer on Salmon street to [illegible] Third street, returned without his appro[val]:

[illegible] urged that sewers, constructed upon the [illegible] the Council, are adapted to other than [illegible] water, and I think an expenditure [illegible] the general fund was evasion, if not [illegible] of the charter, which contemplates that [illegible] shall be made at the expense of [illegible] benefitted thereby. [illegible] to the Council that the construc[tion] [illegible] from the fund raised by general tax [illegible] create controversy as to the localities [illegible] shall be expended, and the Council will [illegible] reference to the experience had in all other [illegible] Union, and by making an estimate of the [illegible], that the building of brick sewers of [illegible] from the amount derived from general taxation [illegible]. [illegible] the Council will wait until some action is taken [illegible] providing for the proper apportion[ment of] [illegible] cost of sewerage upon the property bene[fitted] [illegible] further persist in a policy which has been [illegible] elsewhere, and which will engender [illegible] to financial embarrassment."

[illegible] Mayor was sustained by the failure of [illegible]. [illegible] Mayor Failing is [illegible] stand as [illegible] upon the question. [illegible] power to veto any ordinance, or re[illegible] without his approval, when it does [illegible] his views of right. That a necessity exists [illegible] Mayor does not question, but upon the [illegible] of right according to the power to be derived by [illegible] the measures adopted.

[illegible] AT SALEM.—To the skill of Mr. Albert [illegible], of Carter's block, in this city, his foreman [illegible] the artist Mr. Desmond, Portlanders [illegible] a look at one of our buildings in [illegible] Fair, and Oregonians were enabled to [illegible] a sample on card. This specimen [illegible] wholly of paste-board. The architectural [illegible] of Ralph, every piece of cornice, and ov[illegible] door, corresponded with the building. [illegible], and attracted great attention. [illegible] an opportunity to judge of things in [illegible] Albert had designs—not on the imagin[ation] [illegible] sidewalks—representing the tumblers [illegible] in the metropolis. There is to be [illegible] the OREGONIAN office numerous dirty [illegible] with the latest assessments on stocks on [illegible] waistcoat rushes toward the bro[illegible] ladies promenading in front of [illegible]. At the show window of Humiston's [illegible] or two is to be seen gazing at the $20 [illegible] held out to the view. A poor d—l of [illegible] just with the lamp post or by [illegible] physical frame. Such are the views [illegible] by the dexterity of friends B's, to [illegible] and, wherefore of street scenes in [illegible]. The work was left at the office of our [illegible] of State, who will do what he can to [illegible] what he very well knows, that Al[illegible] place to procure blank books and bind[ing] [illegible] the Pacific coast.

[illegible] FOUND.—Yesterday evening as a [illegible] way taking a stroll with his family [illegible] of Seventh street, he came upon a [illegible] horse, about 13½ hands high, [illegible] a short switch tail, under circum[stances] [illegible]. The place where the horse was [illegible] of the animal having stood there for [illegible]. Rader brought it to Ladd's stable [illegible] taken care of. A good Spanish [illegible], a pair of saddle-bags, containing a [illegible] buckskin, were found near by, [illegible] brought to the city. Soon after leaving [illegible] a man presented himself in the [illegible] what strangely, and anxious to [illegible] of the horse was going to do with [illegible] ... appeared to increase his interest [illegible] be followed along to find the place [illegible] would be stabled. It is somewhat [illegible], and one that needs to be ferreted [illegible] is rife as to the prohibition of the [illegible] lead to the belief that it was stolen [illegible] most likely have been taken away [illegible] the thief.

[illegible] SILVER MINING COMPANY.—A party [illegible] several ledges in the Gold Creek [illegible] on the Gibbs and Phoenix [illegible] their interests an organiza[tion] [illegible], with a capital of $500,000 was [illegible] stock divided into 5,000 shares [illegible] H. W. Eddy, Esq., of Milwaukie [illegible] of the company, Col. Lucretius [illegible] F. Harden Secretary. The ledges [illegible] prospected, and we have but little [illegible] they will do well. The district has [illegible] wealth, and we are quite positive with [illegible] to the interests of this valley. An[illegible] creek, which have heretofore been [illegible], shows a value to the ton ranging [illegible] nearly all silver. The location being [illegible] miles from Portland, in the Cas[cades] [illegible] indicate the prosperity likely to [illegible] of the camps. Already about twenty [illegible] staked, and are being developed, to [illegible].

[illegible] The races over the Portland track com[mence] [illegible]. The race will be running, mile heats, [illegible] of which B. Arthur's Rifleman colt [illegible] Bay horse, known as [illegible].

[illegible] of all Royal Arch Masons is [illegible] of their Special Convocation this eve[ning] [illegible] sojourning companions, unless pre[vented] [illegible] urgent business, are expected to be [illegible].

[illegible] has been found in this city, on Morri[son] [illegible] the water-front to the west line of [illegible] walk.—are engaged in filling it up at the [illegible].

[illegible] left, as was expected, on Satur[day] [illegible] likely to reach this [illegible] tomorrow.

[illegible] Mr. A. B. Richardson called upon us last [illegible] made a round trip to [illegible] of his former exploits.

JUDAH P. BENJAMIN.—The Richmond Republic notices the arrival in Havana of J. P. Benjamin, with due appreciation of his character and his services to the rebel cause. The Republic says:

No one ever doubted, we presume, that Benjamin would effect a safe and even comfortable withdrawal from the ruins of the fallen edifice. He is one of those sagacious statesmen who never forgets in his solicitude for the public interests, the paramount one—number one. It was [illegible] ... the late Minister of Foreign Affairs. He was the master spirit of the cabinet every day, and if he did not "[illegible] the spot at night," he has been grievously belied.

A good conscience, unctuous, plump little man [illegible] one would ever have taken him for a conspirator. He grew sleek and amiable on the troubles of mankind. He was never more cool and collected than when the rest of the world was in hot water. Seeing very clearly what was coming after the Fort [illegible] ... he made one of his finest oratorical displays at the African Church, and having [illegible] the magnificent country gentlemen around him, and stirred them up to a pitch of patriotic paroxysms, he gracefully disappeared from the scene and left them to bear with what composure as they might the startling explosion that [illegible] knew was at hand.

But for the moral obliquity of Benjamin he might have figured as one of the first statesmen in American councils. He is a great lawyer, and one of the most eloquent of speakers. His arguments and sophistries in vindication of the right of secession led astray many men of ordinarily sound judgment and good dispositions. But he seems to have been destitute of principle in both public and private life, and a safe counsel for no one on earth but himself. That he can take care of Judah P. Benjamin there is no manner of doubt.

We can fancy him sitting in his comfortable quarters in Havana, with that stereotyped smile on his mouth, calmly reading the accounts of the misery and ruin which he, as much as any other man, has brought upon the South. None of his friends need fear that he will die of remorse or go and hang himself. He would hold himself in thorough contempt if he could lose one night's sleep on account of the miseries of all the rest of the human race. He looks upon the South as he would look upon any other client whom he had led into an expensive and disastrous lawsuit. The whole matter is purely professional. If he has got his fee from his client he feels that there is no occasion for self reproach. A comfortable dinner every day, and a tussel with the "tiger," every night, will console that retired statesman from all the sorrows of mankind.

SARCASTIC.—An Alabama paper says: "The new Constitution, adopted by a popular vote of the people of Missouri, provides 'that Missouri shall ever remain a member of the American Union.' This we regard as a wise and judicious provision, events have demonstrated that specific provisions of this character may be of great value."

The Albany Evening Journal says that, now that General McClellan is self exiled, Governor Seymour hopelessly sunk into oblivion, and General Sherman declines to be entrapped, the ghost of Mrs. Surratt is the only recognized leader of the Democratic party.

Edmund A. Pollard, formerly editor of the Richmond Examiner, has gone to San Domingo to live. This will add an additional "horror" to the place.

The present population of London is 3,015,494; of the borough of Liverpool, 476,368; city of Manchester, 351,930.

Dr. Winship, the man who could lift such great weights, we believe 2,500 pounds, died at Roxbury, recently, after a brief illness.

Notice

To the Tax-Payers of Multnomah Co.

UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE LAWS NOW in force relating to the collection of taxes, all taxes are required to be paid on or before the 1st day of February of each year. If not paid by that time, the sheriff, with taxes not paid thereon, will be immediately advertised and sold for said taxes at the expense of the owner thereof, and personal property will be levied upon immediately after the expiration of thirty days from the time of my visit to the precincts for the purpose of collecting taxes.

I will therefore in pursuance of law, meet the tax payers of Multnomah County at their respective places of voting in each precinct on the following days, to wit:

East Portland, Wednesday, October 25th.
Multnomah, Thursday, October 26th.
Willamette, Friday, October 27th.
Sauvie, Saturday, October 28th.
Powell's Valley, Monday, October 30th.
St. Johns, Tuesday, October 31st.
Sauvie's Island, Wednesday, November 1st.
North Portland, Thursday, November 2d.
And at the Court House in South Portland Precinct on any day from the 10th day of October until the first day of February next. I will be there promptly from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M. on the days named.
JACOB STITZEL,
Sheriff of Multnomah county, Oregon.

History of the Niagara Peace Conference.

[From Mr. Raymond's Work.]

We have the following curious documents as to the peace negotiations, one of which (Mr. Greeley's ultimatum) was reproduced in the Times from an English journal some weeks since. After referring to the manifesto issued by Senator Wade and Hon. H. Winter Davis, the biographer says:

Still another incident occurred to excite a considerable degree of public anxiety concerning the immediate political future. It was universally understood that a strong desire for peace pervaded the public mind, and that the determination to prosecute the war was the dictate of duty rather than inclination. To such an extent did this longing for peace influence the sentiments and opinions of some, among the least resolute and hopeful of the political leaders in the Republican party, that ready access to them was found by agents of the rebel Government, stationed in Canada for such active service as circumstances might require. Of these agents who were then at Niagara Falls, were C. C. Clay, formerly United States senator from Alabama, Professor Holcombe, of Virginia, and George N. Sanders. Acting on their behalf, and under their instructions, W. Cornell Jewett, an irresponsible and half insane adventurer, put himself in communication with Horace Greeley, editor of the New York Tribune, whose intense eagerness for peace had already commended him to the admiration and sympathy of the emissaries of the rebel Government. In reply to some letter which had been addressed to him, but which has not yet been made public, Jewett wrote on the 5th day of July to Mr. Greeley, the following letter:

JEWETT'S LETTER.

NIAGARA FALLS, July 5, 1864.

MY DEAR MR. GREELEY: In reply to your note I have to advise, having just left George N. Sanders, of Kentucky, on the Canada side, I am authorized to state to you, for your use only, not the public, that two ambassadors of Davis & Co. are now in Canada, with full and complete powers for peace, and Mr. Sanders requests that you come on immediately to me at Cataract House, to have a private interview, or if you will send the President's protection, for him and two friends, they will come on and meet you. He says the whole matter can be consummated by me, you, them, and President Lincoln. Telegraph me in such form that I may know if you come here, or they come on with me.

Yours, W. C. JEWETT.

The next day Mr. Jewett also telegraphed as follows:

H. GREELEY, Tribune: Will you come here? Parties have full power. Wrote you yesterday.
JEWETT.

GREELEY'S LETTER TO LINCOLN.

This letter and telegram Mr. Greeley inclosed to the President at Washington, accompanied by the following letter:

NEW YORK, July 7, 1864.

MY DEAR SIR, I venture to inclose you a letter and telegraphic dispatch that I received yesterday from our irrepressible friend, Colorado Jewett, at Niagara Falls. I think they deserve attention. Of course I do not indorse Jewett's positive averment that his friends at the Falls have "full power" from J. D., though I do not doubt that he thinks they have. I let the statement stand as simply evidencing the anxiety of the Confederates everywhere for peace. So much is beyond doubt.

I therefore venture to remind you that our bleeding, bankrupt, almost dying country also longs for peace—shudders at the prospect of fresh conscriptions, of further wholesale devastations, and of new rivers of human blood, and a wide spread conviction that the Government and its prominent supporters are not anxious for peace, and do not improve proffered opportunities to achieve it, is doing great harm now, and is morally certain, unless removed, to do far greater in the approaching elections.

It is not enough that we anxiously desire a lasting peace; we ought to demonstrate and establish the truth beyond cavil. The fact that A. H. Stephens was not permitted, a year ago, to visit and confer with the authorities at Washington has done harm, which the tone of the late National Convention at Baltimore is not calculated to counteract.

I entreat you, in your own time and manner, to submit overtures for pacification to the Southern insurgents, which the impartial must pronounce frank and generous. If only with a view to the momentous election soon to occur in North Carolina, and of the draft to be enforced in the free States, this should be done at once. I would give the safe conduct required by the rebel envoys at Niagara, upon their parole to avoid observation and to refrain from all communication with their sympathizers in the loyal States; but you may see reasons for declining it. But whether through them or otherwise, do not, I entreat you, fail to make the Southern people comprehend that you, and all of us, are anxious for peace, and prepared to grant liberal terms. I venture to suggest the following:

THE PLAN OF ADJUSTMENT.

1. The Union is restored and declared perpetual.

2. Slavery is utterly and forever abolished throughout the same.

3. A complete amnesty for all political offences, with a restoration of all the inhabitants of each State to all the privileges of citizens of the United States.

4. The Union to pay four hundred million dollars ($400,000,000) in five per cent United States stock to the late slave States, loyal and secession alike, to be apportioned pro rata, according to their slave population respectively, by the census of 1860, in compensation for the losses of their loyal citizens by the abolition of slavery. Each State to be entitled to its quota upon the ratification by its Legislature of this adjustment. The bonds to be at the absolute disposal of the Legislature aforesaid.

5. The said slave States to be entitled henceforth to representation in the House on the basis of their total, instead of their Federal population, the whole now being free.

6. A National Convention, to be assembled as soon as may be, to ratify this adjustment, and make such changes in the Constitution as may be deemed advisable.

Mr. President, I fear you do not realize how intently the people desire any peace consistent with the National integrity and honor, and how joyously they would hail its achievement and bless its authors. With United States stocks worth but forty cents in gold per dollar, and drafting about to commence on the third million of Union soldiers, can this be wondered at?

I do not say that a just peace is now attainable though I believe it to be so. But I do say that a frank offer by you to the insurgents of terms which the impartial say ought to be accepted, will, at the worst, prove an immense and sorely needed advantage to the National cause. It may save us from a Northern insurrection.

Yours, truly, HORACE GREELEY.

HON. A. LINCOLN, President, Washington, D. C.

P. S.—Even though it should be deemed unadvisable to make an offer of terms to the rebels, I insist that, in any possible case, it is desirable that any offer they may be disposed to make should be received, and either accepted or rejected. I beg you to invite those now at Niagara to exhibit their credentials and submit their ultimatum.

H. G.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPLY.

To this letter the President sent the following answer:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 9, 1864.

Hon. Horace Greeley: DEAR SIR: Your letter of the 7th, with inclosures, received. If you can find any person, anywhere, professing to have any proposition of Jefferson Davis, in writing, for peace, embracing the restoration of the Union and the abandonment of slavery, whatever else it embraces, say to him he may come to me with you, and that if he really brings such a proposition, he shall, at the least, have safe conduct with the paper (and without publicity if he choose) to the point where you shall have met him. The same if there be two or more persons.

Yours truly, A. LINCOLN.

GREELEY'S RESPONSE.

Mr. Greeley answered this letter as follows:

OFFICE OF THE TRIBUNE, NEW YORK, July 10, 1864.

MY DEAR SIR: I have yours of yesterday. Whether there be persons at Niagara (or elsewhere) who are empowered to commit the rebels by negotiation, is a question; but if there be such, there is no question at all that they would decline to exhibit their credentials to me, much more to open their budget and give me their best terms. Green as I may be, I am not quite so verdant as to imagine anything of the sort. I have neither purpose nor desire to be made a confidant, far less an agent in such negotiations. But I do deeply realize that the rebel chiefs achieved a most decided advantage in proposing or pretending to propose to have A. H. Stephens visit Washington as a peace maker, and being rudely repulsed; and I am anxious that the ground lost to the national cause by that mistake shall somehow be regained in season for effect on the approaching North Carolina election. I will see if I can get a look into the hand of whomsoever may be at Niagara, though that is a project so manifestly hopeless that I have little heart for it, still I shall try.

Meantime I wish you would consider the propriety of somehow apprising the people of the South, especially those of North Carolina, that no overture or advance looking to peace or reunion has ever been repelled by you, but that such an one would at any time have been cordially received and favorably regarded, and would still be.

Yours, HORACE GREELEY.

HON. A. LINCOLN.

This letter failed to reach the President until after the following one was received, and was never therefore, specifically answered.

Three days after the above letter Mr. Greeley, having received additional information from some quarter, wrote to the President as follows:

OFFICE OF THE TRIBUNE, New York, July 13, 1864.

MY DEAR SIR: I have now information on which I can rely that two persons duly commissioned and empowered to negotiate for peace are at this moment not far from Niagara Falls, in Canada, and are desirous of conferring with yourself, or with such persons as you may empower to treat with them. Their names (only given in confidence) are Hon. Clement C. Clay, of Alabama, and Hon. Jacob Thompson, of Mississippi. If you should prefer to meet them in person, they require safe conduct for themselves and for George N. Sanders, who will accompany them. Should you choose to empower one or more persons to treat with them in Canada, they will of course need no safe conduct, but they cannot be expected to present credentials save to commissioners empowered as they are. In negotiating directly with yourself, all grounds of cavil would be avoided, and you would be enabled at all times to act upon the freshest advices of the military situation. You will, of course, understand that I know nothing and have proposed nothing as to terms, and nothing is conceded or taken for granted by the meeting of persons empowered to negotiate for peace.

All that is assumed is a mutual desire to terminate this wholesale slaughter if a basis of adjustment can be mutually agreed on, and it seems to me high time that an effort to this end should be made. I am, of course quite other than sanguine that a peace can now be made, but I am quite sure that a frank, earnest, honest effort to terminate the war on honorable terms would immensely strengthen the Government in case of the failure, and would help us in the eyes of the civilized world, which now accuses us of obstinacy and indisposition even to seek a peaceful solution of our sanguinary, distressing conflict. Hoping to hear that you have resolved to act so promptly that a good influence may even yet be exerted on the North Carolina election next month, I remain yours,

HORACE GREELEY.

HON. A. LINCOLN, Washington.

SANDERS' LETTER.

On the 12th, the day before the foregoing letter was sent, Mr. George N. Sanders had written to Mr. Greeley as follows:

CLIFTON HOUSE, Niagara Falls, Canada West, July 12, 1864.

Dear Sir: I am authorized to say that Hon. Clement C. Clay, of Alabama, Prof. James P. Holcombe, of Virginia, and George N. Sanders, of Dixie, are ready and willing to go at once to Washington, upon complete and unqualified protection being given either by the President or Secretary of War. Let the permission include the three names and one other. Very respectfully,

GEO. N. SANDERS.

To Hon. HORACE GREELEY.

This letter of Mr. Sanders does not seem to have been communicated to the President, but on the receipt of Mr. Greeley's letter of the 13th, he immediately answered it by the following telegram:

PRESIDENT'S TELEGRAM.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, July 15, 1864.

Hon. Horace Greeley, New York: I suppose you received my letter of the 9th. I have just received yours of the 13th, and am disappointed by it. I was not expecting you to send me a letter, but to bring me a man or men. Mr. Hay goes to you with my answer to yours of the 13th.

A. LINCOLN.

The answer which Major Hay carried was as follows:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, July 15, 1864.

Hon. Horace Greeley—My Dear Sir: Yours of the 13th is just received, and I am disappointed that you have not already reached here with those commissioners. If they would consent to come on, being shown my letter to you of the 9th inst., show that and this to them, and if they will come on the terms stated in the former, bring them. I not only intend a sincere effort for peace, but I intend that you shall be a personal witness that it is made. Yours truly, A. LINCOLN.

MAJOR HAY'S DESPATCH.

When Major Hay arrived at New York he delivered to Mr. Greeley this letter from the President, and telegraphed its result to the President, as follows:

UNITED STATES MILITARY TELEGRAPH, WAR DEPARTMENT, N. Y., 9 A. M., July 16, 1864.

His Excellency Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States: Arrived this morning at 6 A. M. and delivered your letter a few minutes after. Although he thinks some one less known would create less excitement, and be less embarrassed by public curiosity, still he will start immediately, if he can have an absolute safe conduct for four persons to be named by him. Your letter he does not think will guard them from arrest, and with those letters he would have to explain the whole matter to any officer who might choose to hinder them. If this meets with your approbation, I can write the order in your name as A. A. G., or you can send it by mail. Please answer me at the Astor House.

JOHN HAY, A. A. G.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPLY.

The President at once answered by telegraph as follows:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, July 16, 1864.

John Hay, Astor House, New York: Yours received. Write the safe conduct as you propose, without waiting for one by mail from me. If there is or is not anything in the affair, I wish to know it without unnecessary delay.

A. LINCOLN.

SAFE CONDUCT.

Major Hay accordingly wrote the following safe conduct, armed with which Mr. Greeley betook himself to Niagara Falls:

The President of the United States directs that the four persons whose names follow, to wit:

Hon. CLEMENT C. CLAY,
Hon. JACOB THOMPSON,
Prof. JAMES B. HOLCOMBE,
GEORGE N. SANDERS,

shall have safe conduct to the City of Washington in company with Hon. Horace Greeley, and shall be exempt from arrest or annoyance of any kind from any officer of the United States during their journey to the city of Washington.

By order of the President,
JOHN HAY, Maj. and A. A. G.

THE NIAGARA CORRESPONDENCE.

Here follows that part of the correspondence which was published soon after the "negotiation" was abandoned, and which appeared in the Times of July 22, 1864. The only additional document produced is the following telegram from Mr. Lincoln, which is of interest as it calls forth the dispatch addressed "to whom it may concern":

INTERNATIONAL HOTEL, CLIFTON HOUSE, NIAGARA FALLS, July 18, 1864.

Hon. Abraham Lincoln, President: I have communicated with the gentlemen in question, and do not find them so empowered as I was previously assured. They say that "We are however, in the confidential employment of our Government, and entirely familiar with its wishes and opinions on that subject, and we feel authorized to declare that, if the circumstances disclosed in this correspondence were communicated to Richmond, we should at once be invested with the authority to which your letter refers, or other gentlemen clothed with full power, would immediately be sent to Washington with a view of hastening a consummation so much to be desired, and terminating at the earliest possible moment, the calamities of the war. We respectfully solicit, through your intervention, a safe conduct to Washington and thence by any route which may be designated, to Richmond." Such is the more material portion of the gentlemen's letter. I will transmit the entire correspondence if desired. Awaiting your further instruction, I remain yours.

HORACE GREELEY.

Conclusion to-morrow.

CAUSE OF EARTHQUAKES.—The soft air which fans the cheek of beauty into rosy blushes, and bears to the invigorated sense the refreshing perfume of summer flowers, is potent enough to press upon the earth at the rate of fifteen pounds to every square inch. It is this pressure which keeps our pie-crust down. A slight increase of the pressure would force it into the burning fluid, for the globe is molten within and agitated as a huge furnace and a trifling decrease of pressure would suffer the struggling forces to break through from below. Earthquakes invariably happen at a fall of the barometer, that is, when the air becomes slightly thinner, less heavy, and consequently less capable of treading down the crust upon the tops of the imprisoned flames. Over a hundred miles of country the removal of the atmospheric pressure will sometimes amount to nearly 2,000,000 of tons, which is a sufficient relaxation of force to permit the outbreak of an earthquake.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE,

FOR THE

CURE OF SPECIAL DISEASES,

ARMORY HALL BUILDING,

Northeast Corner Montgomery

and Sacramento streets,

ENTRANCE ON EITHER MONTGOMERY OR SACRAMENTO STREET.

DR. PERRAULT CONTINUES TO TREAT PRIVATE AND CHRONIC COMPLAINTS, SCROFULA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE BLOOD, SPERMATORRHEA, IMPOTENCE, STERILITY.

DR. PERRAULT is a Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and is the ONLY REGULAR GRADUATE who practices as a SPECIALIST in San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT will cure all who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, loss of Memory and Vigor, etc., resulting from injurious habits, contracted in youth, or excesses in maturity, which produce constitutional debility and premature decline.

It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to disease owing to unskillful treatment and improper use of Mercury.

All cases of Gonorrhea, Gleet, Structures, Illnesses of the Bladder, Gravel, Spermatorrhoea, and Impotence will be cured in a few days without prevention from business.

To the Ladies.

Ladies suffering from Whites, Falling of the Womb, Suppression of the Menses or Profuse Flowing, Costiveness, Piles, Weakness of the Back, Pain in the Side, Headache, Palpitation, and all other diseases to which the female system is subjected, will find prompt relief by addressing themselves to DR. PERRAULT, corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets. Private entrance on Sacramento street.

To those seeking our advice a plain statement of their case will be given, whether curable or not. All cases taken under treatment warranted. No charges for advice. No poisons or harsh medicines to injure the constitution; no making sick to make well, honest in our dealings, frank in our opinions, moderate in our charges. We invite investigation, claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but do claim to reason and common sense, and to cure eight out of ten pronounced incurable.

We particularly request those who have tried this Doctor, and that scientific Physician, boasted and advertised, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us. It will cost nothing, as consultations are free.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to DR. PERRAULT stating their case as minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc. Letters to be addressed J. PERRAULT, M. D., corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 973 Post Office, San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT still retains the agency of DR. BIOT'S FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. Their numerous sale has established their reputation as the only safe and effectual remedy for all irregularities and obstructions in females, no matter from what cause. On receipt of five dollars, these pills will be sent by Mail or Express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage. se22d3m

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions to the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLEOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung or relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man. He stands erect, he moves with a firm step. his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURN,
ING OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to
